Special Edition of The Hotsheet for Purposes of a Child Support Poll

Federal law requires that states' support schedules be reviewed every four years. Washington's review is extremely late. Legislation is expected to be introduced in the 2006 legislative session on this issue.

At the Family Law Midyear Conference, Kathleen Schmidt did a presentation on the work currently being done on Washington's support schedule. Because we believe family law attorneys are in a unique position to assess the effect of child support schedules on families, Kathleen's materials included a questionnaire for attendees to fill out. That questionnaire is reproduced on the second page of this issue of The Hotsheet. Please take the time to review the questionnaire and to fill it out. Then fax it to Kathleen Schmidt at 509-663-6165 or mail it to her at

Kathleen Schmidt
Attorney at Law
427 Douglas St.
Wenatchee, WA 98801

If you have comments you would like to make, please use a separate sheet and attach them to your questionnaire.

Thank you. Your input is valuable and will be considered.

2005 Family Law Section Midyear Conference

The 2005 Family Law Section Mid-Year Conference at Ocean Shores was a resounding success. Attendance was great, the reception to the speakers was great, and it appeared that a good time was had by all.

Remember: Sign up early for next year's midyear conference in Walla Walla.

Family Law Listserv

One of the benefits provided by your section is the popular listserv. There you can post questions or otherwise find useful information. Check our web site for instructions on joining the listserv.

Legislation Web Site

You may obtain up to date information on bills in the Washington State Legislature through the state government web site. The address for this site is

<http://www.leg.wa.gov>

WSBA Web Site Section Membership Renewal

Your Family Law Section membership can be renewed from the WSBA website page at www.wsba.org/familylaw. Prospective new members can join from the same web site.
